REGISTERED IN
I R E L A N D
IN THE YEAR
1871.

Presented to both Houses of Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

DUBLIN:
PRINTED BY ALEXANDER THOM, 87 & 88, ABBEY-STREET,
FOR HER MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE.

1872.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN POYNTZ, EARL SPENCER, K.G.,

LODGE KILKENNY, 10th APRIL 1872.

My Lord,

May it please Your Excellency,

I have the honour to transmit, in order that the same may be laid before Parliament, a General Abstract of the number of Births, Deaths, and Marriages registered in Ireland during the year 1871; as required by the 26 Vic., cap. 11, the 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90, and the 7 & 8 Vic., cap. 81.

The first-mentioned Act provides for the Registration of the Births and Deaths of the entire population—the second for the Registration of Roman Catholic Marriages,—and the third for the Registration of the Marriages of members of the Protestant community. The two former statutes came into operation on the 1st of January, 1864; the last-mentioned on the 1st of April, 1865.

The Superintendent Registrars' Districts,—which are co-extensive with the 163 Poor Law Unions,—have been grouped into the following eight Divisions:—

No. I. THE NORTH-EASTERN DIVISION.—This division may be topographically described by a line passing southward from Lough Foyle through the Counties of Londonderry, Tyrone, and Antrim, to Lough Bawn, in the County of Monaghan, and thence eastward to Castlingford Lough; the north and east being on the seaboard.

No. II. THE NORTH-WESTERN DIVISION.—is bounded on the east by the division just described, from Lough Foyle to a point a little south of Six Mile Cross, in the County of Tyrone, and may be described by a line drawn thence S.W. through the County of Fermanagh to the south of Baniskillen, embracing that portion of the north-western angle of the County of Cavan belonging to the Baniskillen Union, into the County of Leitrim, crossing Lough Allen, thence into the County of Sligo, to a point situated to the southward of the town of Ballyvaughan, and thence extending north to Ballyvaughan Bay; the remainder of the division is bounded by the sea. It contains Loughs Beg and Derg, and part of Lough Allen, and large portions of it are mountainous.

No. III. THE EASTERN DIVISION.—is situated in the provinces of Leinster and Ulster; it extends along the Irish Sea and St. George's Channel, from Warrenpoint, in the County of Down, to the south of Cabore Point, in the County of Wexford, stretching inland about 25 miles, and embracing the Counties of Louth, Dublin, and Wicklow, and portions of the Counties of Carlow, Cavan, Kildare, Meath, and Wexford; together with small portions of the Counties of Antrim and Monaghan.

No. IV. THE NORTH-MIDLAND DIVISION.—is situated in the provinces of Leinster, Ulster, and Connaught, and extends southward from its junction with the "North-Western" division near Six Mile Cross, in the County of Tyrone, to Tyrrellspass, in the County of Westmeath. Virginia, in the County of Cavan, is situated on its eastern border, and Tulsk, in the County of Roscommon, on its western.

No. V. THE SOUTH-MIDLAND DIVISION.—situated in the provinces of Leinster and Munster, extends from the Hill of Down, in the County of Meath, southward to Barria, in the County of Carlow. Its southern boundary may be described by a line drawn thence to New Rinsington, in the County of Tipperary, and from that point south to Fethard, in the same County, thence westward to the northern base of the Galley mountains, and in a north-westerly direction, to Pallasgreen, in the County of Limerick. On the east it is bounded by the "Eastern" division, and on the west by the "Western" and the "South-Western" divisions.

No. VI. THE WESTERN DIVISION.—This Division extends southward from Sligo and Killybegs Bays to the northern bank of the River Shannon, lying westward of Limerick; the extreme points, north and south, being Binnbeg Head, in the County of Mayo, and Loop Head, in the County of Clare, a distance in or about 120 miles, which, however, does not represent the extent of seaboard, the western coast being indented by numerous bays and inlets. This division has been extended much more inland than the eastern division, as, from its exposure to the Atlantic Ocean, and the prevalence of westerly winds (which blow for nearly three-fourths of the year), the climate must be affected for a considerable distance inland; the Unions situated on the extreme east are Boyle, Castlebar, Glenties, Monaghan, Ballinacorney, and Portlaoine.

No. VII. THE SOUTH-EASTERN DIVISION.—This division extends from its junction with the "Eastern" division, southward of Cabore Point, in the County of Wexford, along the eastern and southern coasts to the east of Cork Harbour, and is bounded on the north by the "South-Midland" division. It embraces the County of Waterford; nearly the whole of the County of Wexford; parts of the Counties of Carlow, Kilkenny, and Tipperary; that portion of the County of Limerick (38,350 acres) comprised in the Mitchelstown Union, and a portion of the eastern side of Cork County.

No. VIII. THE SOUTH-WESTERN DIVISION.—extends along the southern and western coasts from Cork Harbour to the River Shannon, and embraces the County of Kerry, nearly the whole of the Counties of Cork and Limerick, and a small portion of the County of Clare, comprised in the Limerick Union.

The Births registered in Ireland during the year 1871 amounted to 151,665—77,553 boys and 74,112 girls—affording a ratio of 1 in every 25·32, or 2·82 per cent. of the estimated population in the middle of that year. The Deaths amounted to 58,720—44,503 males, and 44,213 females—affording a ratio of only 1 in every 60·72, or 1·65 per cent. The entire number of Marriages registered gives a ratio of 1 in every 186, or ·54 per cent. of the population—the number of Roman Catholic marriages (26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90) affording a ratio of only 1 marriage to every 196 of Roman Catholics;—and the number of Protestant marriages (7 & 8 Vic., cap. 81), a ratio of 1 in every 158 of Protestants. The final revision of the numbers for the year 1871 has not yet been completed; they will, therefore, probably be found to differ, in some instances, from the revised numbers in the detailed Abstracts to be hereafter presented to Parliament with my Eighth Annual Report.

I have the honour to be

Your Excellency's very faithful servant,

WILLIAM DONNELLY,
Registrar-General.

GENERAL REGISTRAR OFFICE,
